

PROPS guide

FOR SOME FUN

PROPS!

Endless possibilities!

Here's the amazing thing about props, this is your chance to make your session

TOTALLY you! If you want to keep it simple, hats, blankets or matching sweatshirts are totally awesome and make for some great pics! But if you want to make it even more personal, I am HERE FOR IT! If you guys are super into Harry Potter, maybe bring your wands you got from Diagon alley and we can shoot a couple pics like you're having a duel! If you guys have a fur baby together, PLEASE bring your pupper! If you love the bachelor and watch it together every Monday (or Tuesday for us Hulu-er's) then heck bring a long stemmed red rose! Or if you met because your dream boat showed up at your door with a box of pizza from your favorite pizzeria, LET'S GET SOME PIZZA IN THESE PICS! Props are a fun way to tell your story! They don't have to be in every shot and we can take some without them, but make your session totally unique and your own by bringin things that mean something to you! Here are some cool things that I've seen!

Hats/beanies are ALWAYS a win

Add some fairy lights

Bring some flowers

They met at Chick Fil A

Bring a blanket

Add in your fave drink

Pop the confetti

A family heirloom

Bring your fur baby

Shake up somethin' fizzy

Show off your sick ride

Add some music!!

A few more I don't have shots of but would love to try are things like:

- flower petals
- sparklers
- more musical instruments
- picnic
- PLEASE SOMEONE BRING PIZZA
- literally whatever you can think of, I'll love it!
- Here is a pinterests page for some more ideas!

Seriously can't wait to see what you think of! And I'm always open for you to run some ideas by me!
